

Project: Movie App

Subtitle: Real-Time Movie Explorer with API Integration

Description: A responsive movie search app built using React.js, designed to fetch and display data from a movie database API. It implements debounced search, loading states, and clean component architecture using Context API and Custom Hooks.

Category: React.js, Web Application, API Integration

Tech Stack: React, TailwindCSS, JavaScript